

November 2011 Club News

Dundalk Photo Society Auction in aid of the Birches was a tremendous success, raising much needed funds for the Alzheimers Day Care Centre. The images on offer from Dundalk Photo club were really beautiful and there were even images generously donated by two members of Mallow Camera Club, Brid Coakley & John Hooton.

The event was a great success and it wouldn't have been possible if it weren't for all the hard work put in by a lot of people before and during the event.

Many thanks the auctioneers, Anthony McArdle & Stephen Gunn, the staff at the Marist Hall and Martin Heagarty and his team of volunteers To all those who delivered the flyers and posters, got donations, spot prizes, bric a brac, and any other item that earned us a few quid for the Birches, every little helped.

Finally thanks to all who turned up on the day to support this worthy cause.

In the club it was November competition time. In the non-advanced section, Brendan Tumilty is leading. Michelle McNally is leading the Advanced section and leading Senior Section is Gabriel O'Shaughnessy with his beautiful images 'Red Boat' and 'Molly' scoring highly.

Judge this month was Paul Stanley from Dublin Camera club and he selected Tony McDonnells black & white image 'Lovers on a train' as Image of the month.

This month also saw the publication of the Irish Photographic Federations Yearbook. There are many club members images featured in the book. Featured on the front cover is club member Freddie McArdle's image 'Blue tit' and on the back cover is fellow club member Michelle McNallys 'Star of the Show'. What an honour to be chosen to be on the cover of this prestigious publication.
