

DPS Win Rosebowl 2012

Dundalk Photographic Society has won the Irish Photographic Federation 2012 National Club Championships held in the Institute of Technology, Athlone on Sunday the 20th of May.

Dundalk competed against 28 other Irish camera clubs to take the coveted Rosebowl award with Drogheda Photographic Club coming in second place and Mallow Camera Club, the defending champions, in third place.

Overall Winner – Dundalk Photographic Society

2nd Place – Drogheda Photographic Club

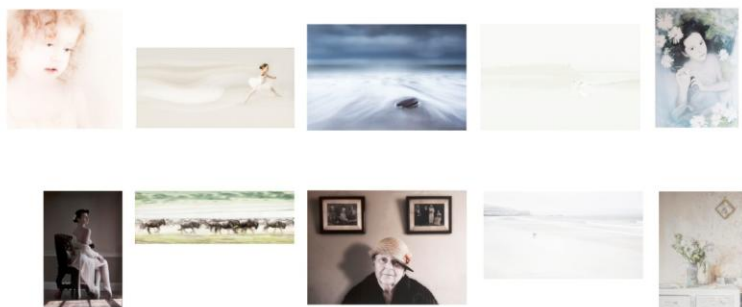

3rd Place – Mallow Camera Club

Representing the club were: Gabriel O'Shaughnessy, David Martin, Brian Hopper, Colm Kane, Tony McDonnell, Declan Gernon, Michelle McNally, Michelle Geoghegan and Arthur Carron.

Dundalk Photographic Society - Monochrome Panel 2012

Dundalk Photographic Society - Colour Panel 2012

Individual Awards

Several clubmembers were awarded individual medals, most impressively Gabriel O'Shaughnessy who won Gold in both Monochrome and Colour sections. Full details of individual awards are shown below.

Monochrome

Gold – Gabriel O'Shaughnessy – Dundalk Photographic Society – Smoker

Highly Commended – Gabriel O'Shaughnessy – Dundalk Photographic Society – Hair Cut

Highly Commended – Declan Gernon – Dundalk Photographic Society – Laytown Races

Colour

Gold - Gold – Gabriel OShaughnessy – Dundalk Photographic Society – Molly

Silver - David Martin – Dundalk Photographic Society – Tranquility

Bronze - Bronze – Brian Hopper – Dundalk Photographic Society – Swan on the River

Well done to selectors, panelists and all involved in this years entry! Congratulations!

For more information check out www.irishphoto.ie