DPS come 2nd in Colour Section of National Shield

DPS members came 2nd in the Colour Section of the National Shield in Ballyfermot Civic Centre on Sunday, the 11th of November hosted by Satsun Photographic Club.

The prestigious National Shield trophy for non-advanced workers was won by Malahide Camera Club, with Cork Camera Group in 2nd place and Fermoy Camera Club in 3rd.

Congratulations to all clubs that enter this years competition and particularly to the individual participants.

Judges this year were Kevin and Margery Maskell, who travelled from the UK to support the event.

Clubmembers representing the club were Gary Murphy, Damian O'Malley, Tara Mundow, Brendan Tumilty, Clodagh Tumilty, Eithne Ni Anluain, Tony Moriarty and Robert Duffy.

Damien O'Malley was awarded an individual Bronze medal for his image 'In the Fishermans kitchen'.

Well done to Thomas Gray who organises the club entry, the selectors and all competitors.
