Clodagh Tumilty wins Non-Advanced Photographer of the Year

A big Congratulations to Clodagh Tumilty who won the Non-Advanced Photographer of the Year 2012/13. Clodagh won in the colour section and also tied joint first with Tony Moriarty in the black and white section.

Well done also to the runners up, Kerri-Ann Woods, Robbie Duffy, John McGee and Tara Mundow, whose photos were very impressive all year and all were so diligent in keeping up the monthly competition. Well done to all who entered in the non-advanced section this year as the standard of work has been hugely impressive all year – so big congratulations to all!

Thanks to Brian Hopper who judged this final round.
