

DPS 2nd in Colour Section of the National Shield

With the highest number of entries in years, 26 camera clubs and 4 new camera clubs in the competition, overall Boyle Camera Club were awarded the National Shield, 2nd place went to Drogheda Photographic Society and 3rd place Cork Camera Group.

Boyle won the Mono section with Waterford in 2nd and Cork Camera Group in 3rd. The colour section was won by Drogheda win Dundalk in 2nd place and Malahide in 3rd.

Clubmembers representing the club were Tara Mundow, Clodagh Tumilty, Brendan Tumilty, Paul Marry, Colm Rogan, Gary Murphy, Francis McKeown, John McGee, Mark English, Robert Duffy, Evalds Gaspazins and Simon Mullen.

Thomas Gray receiving 2nd place award from IPF president.

Prizes for the event were sponsored by Canson Infinity paper from Sheldon Photography.

Many thanks to the Selectors in particular Thomas Gray who organized the entry. And to all clubmembers who represented the club.