

Beginners Competition Round 4

Well done to all the members in the Beginners Section who competed last week. The standard of images was very high and Colm Kane, this month's judge, was impressed. Colm stated that the standard had improved dramatically since he last judged the Beginners Competition two years ago. Two images received top marks of 20, Simon Mullen's colour image "Rachel" and Paul Marry's monochrome image 'Old Coat New Boots'. Colm was very generous in putting forward one of his own Black & White images as a prize for Image of the Month. As Colm continues to use film and dark room technology, there are no digital copies of his original work entitled "Bottles". Colm awarded Image of the Month to Simon for his image "Rachel". It really was a very enjoyable evening and it was great to see the number of entries increase yet again.
