

Seamus Costello

We express a huge thanks to Seamus Costello from Kilkenny for joining us last week and for the fabulous image he presented to the club. He displayed a great variety of work, from wedding photography to glamour, from fine art to some very imaginative photoshop creations. He was delighted to share his wealth of information on lighting and the importance of 'getting it right'.

Seamus Costello presenting his print to the members to DPS