

Photographer of the Year

Congratulations to everyone who participated last night. The standard of images on display were stunning and the judges remarked on more than one occasion that they thought it might be time to head for the hills! Each and every one of our members can be so proud of their images and efforts throughout the year. The improvements many of us have made in our photography over the last season is pushing standards for the club ever higher.

But now down to the 'nitty gritty' and the full results from last night's very closely fought competition are as follows:
