

Non Advanced Model Night

Unfortunately, we picked a night that clashed with the Dundalk soccer team playing in the Europa League and, thus, the turn out of non-advanced members was low. However, for those who were there it was a fantastic opportunity to gain experience. More time was available for each member as we had three fantastic models available on the night.