

IPF Photographer of the Year

This year, the photographer of the year finals day was held much closer to home in the D Hotel in Drogheda. Birmingham Cameras sponsored the competition. The judges on the day were

Gwen Charnock	FRPS MFIAP
Phil Charnock	FRPS MFIAP
Rikki O'Neill	MPAGB FIPF Hon SPF

All of the images presented on the day had qualified from regional rounds. There were six competitions held in the following categories

Colour Print Open
Colour Print Theme	[Creative / Experimental]
Monochrome Print Open
Monochrome Print Theme	[Environmental Portraiture]
Projected Image Open
Projected Image Theme	[The Human Face & Body]

Conor McEneaney received an honourable mention for this Salterstown image.
 Evals Gaspazins received an honourable mention for his Ballroom Dancers
 Tony McDonnell received a silver medal for Spanish Horse & Boy
 Clodagh Tumilty received a gold medal for the Projected Theme competition.

Windows to the Soul – Clodagh's winning image