

Three-way Tournament

On annual three-way tournament was held on Friday evening, 7th April in Ballinahinch. Club members from Ballynahinch, Banbridge and Dundalk are asked to bring along two prints, one colour and one monochrome, to represent their club. The night's judge was Lawrence Perkins, a freelance photographer from Lisburn in Northern Ireland. After an initial comment on each image from the night's judge, each club must select what they consider to be their ten best images. The judge then awards marks to each of the ten. The club that gathers the least marks is deemed the winner.

Club	Monochrome	Colour	Total
Ballynahinch	88	96	184
Banbridge	79	81	160
Dundalk	72	75	147

Lawrence Perkins presents perpetual shield to Dundalk Chairman, Damien O'Malley

Andrew O'Connor from Dundalk was awarded Best Image by Lawrence for his print titled "Leona". Dundalk Chairman, Damien O'Malley, accepts the award from Lawrence Perkins on behalf of Andrew.